

MEAL PLAN INFORMATION
FOR WWU APARTMENT RESIDENTS, OFF-CAMPUS STUDENTS AND WWU FACULTY & STAFF
2019-2020 ACADEMIC YEAR

GENERAL INFORMATION: You may sign up for a meal plan at the Dining Office in Edens Hall, 109. Meal plans will be sold only to students, faculty, administrators and staff of WWU. Meal plan holders may dine at any one of the three dining rooms (Viking Commons, Ridgeway Commons and Fairhaven Commons). Dining hall hours are posted at each dining room. The meal plan holder will be responsible for payment (based on prorated meals and meal plan daily rate) up through the date of written cancellation, regardless of the number of meals consumed. Meals or Dining Dollars used past the prorated amount will be billed separately to your student account. Meal plan reductions are allowed through the second Friday of the quarter (Dining Office, Edens Hall Room 109, 5pm.) Late fees will be charged for delinquent accounts. Dining Office hours are Monday-Friday, 8am-5pm. Payments may be made at the Student Business Office located in Old Main 110. Their hours are Monday-Friday, 9am-4pm.

MEAL PLAN CANCELLATION: Optional meal plans last for the entire school year unless cancelled by the meal plan holder. Meal plan cancellations are subject to a $30 cancellation fee and must be made in writing to Dining@wvu.edu or in person at Edens Hall, 109. Include your name, ID#, and date you want the plan is to stop. You are financially responsible for the cost of your meal plan through the date of cancellation (even if you never used it) and your student account is adjusted accordingly. If you used more than your share of meals or Dining Dollars relative to the number of days you had the plan, the excess is billed to your student account. Unused (within the pro-rated allowance) meals and Dining Dollars for the current quarter are forfeited, but any Dining Dollars left over from the previous quarter are yours to spend through mid-day on June 12, 2020.
